Magistrate Judge Douglas E. Arpert
District of New Jersey

Case: Ritz et al v. Equifax Information Services, LLC et al
Case No. 3:20-cv-13509-FLW-DEA

GC

Subject: Joint Letter to Extend Summary Judgment
Briefing Schedule

Dear Magistrate Arpert:

Plaintiffs and Nissan hereby jointly request that the Court extend the current summary judgment briefing schedule¹ by thirty (30) days to allow the parties to continue pursuing settlement through their ongoing mediation.

The parties began a private mediation on June 2, 2022. Although the parties did not settle on that day, the parties agreed to reconvene their mediation on June 14, 2022 and possibly thereafter. In order to allow both parties to maintain their respective settlement positions without incurring additional time and expense, the parties agreed to request this extension of the upcoming summary judgment briefing deadlines.

The current briefing deadlines and the requested extended deadlines are as follows:

Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment	06/30/2022	07/30/2022
---	------------	------------

Nissan's cross-motion for summary judgment and opposition to Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment	08/01/2022	08/31/2022
--	------------	------------

Plaintiffs' opposition to Nissan's cross-motion for summary judgment and in reply to Nissan's opposition to Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment	08/31/2022	09/30/2022
---	------------	------------

Nissan's reply to Plaintiffs' opposition to Nissan's cross-motion for summary judgment	09/15/2022	10/15/2022
--	------------	------------

We thank your honor for his consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
